Brian Yorkey

Brian Yorkey is an American dramamaker and lyricist. His works often explore dark and controversial subject matter such as mental illness, grief, the underbelly of suburbia, and ethics in both psychiatry and public education. Yorkey was born in Omaha, Nebraska, where he was raised, before his family moved to Issaquah, Washington. He graduated from Columbia University in 1993, where he served as the Artistic Director of the Varsity Show. He is an alumnus of the BMI Lehman Engel Musical Theater Workshop.

Prior to bringing Next to Normal to Broadway, Yorkey was affiliated with Village Theatre in Issaquah, where he began as a KidStage student and eventually progressed to a seven-year tenure as Associate Artistic Director. Four musicals written by Yorkey—Funny Pages (1993), Making Tracks (2002), The Wedding Banquet (2003), and Play it by Heart (2005)—were staged there.

While at Village Theatre, Yorkey founded the KidStage Company class which teaches teens to write, direct, and perform their own musicals. Yorkey's frequent collaborator, Tom Kitt, joined him in assisting with the score to the 2008 Company Original, In Your Eyes. He worked with composer Tim Symons, on other Company Originals such as Last Exit and A Perfect Fall. Sinopsis serial drama 13 REASONS WHY

The series that airs on Netflix under the title 13 REASONS WHY is an adaptation of a novel by Jay Asher that was released in 2007. This series tells the story of a high school girl named Hanna Baker who decides to end her life. Before he committed suicide, he had prepared 13 recordings containing the reasons for committing suicide. These tapes were then distributed to some of his school friends. In the following, the writer will write a synopsis of the drama series 13 REASONS WHY separately according to the episodes to make it easier for readers to understand the story in each episode :

1) Synopsis of episode 1 13 REASONS WHY

In the first episode, it is told that Liberty High School is still in mourning over the death of Hannah Baker due to suicide. It had been a week since Hannah Baker's death, the school was littered with posters reminding students not to commit suicide. In episode 1, the first reason why Hannah Baker took her own life was revealed. It all started when Clay Jansen came home from school and found a wrapped package on his doorstep with his name written on it. After Clay opened the package, it turned out that it contained 7 cassettes with a number on each side, so there were 13 records in total. Curious Clay immediately played the tape on an old radio that belonged to his father. How shocked Clay was when he heard that the voice that emerged from the tape was the voice of his schoolmate Hannah Baker who died a week ago by suicide.

In the tape Clay listens to the reason Hannah ended her life and the person who received the tape is the reason why Hannah Baker ended her life. Clay wasn't the only friend of Hannah's to receive the tapes, but Clay was the eleventh person to receive them. There are as many as 13 people that Hannah will mention in her recordings, each of whom has their own story with Hannah when she was still alive.

Clay had such a special story with Hannah that Clay couldn't easily finish the tapes in a short amount of time. In this episode there is a flashback scene that will take us to the part where Hannah tells the story in the recording. If a flashback scene appears, the tone or coloring will change to warm which indicates joy and when you return to the present, the coloring will change to cool which indicates pessimism or hopelessness.

In the first recording that Clay played, a name appeared, namely Justin Folley, who was Hannah's first love at Liberty High School. Justin and Hannah met at a party hosted by Hannah. It started with a smile that Justin threw at Hannah which led to their first date in a city park. Hannah's first date with Justin did go according to Hannah's expectations but this date was the forerunner to which Hannah was often the target of intimidation by her friends. That's why Justin Folley's name appears as the first person to cause Hannah to end her life.

2) Synopsis of episode 2 13 REASONS WHY

In the second episode, Hannah shares her story with a former close friend of hers and her first friend at Liberty High School. They both had a common sense of humor so it wasn't hard for Hannah to be friends with him. She is Jessica Davis whose name appears on the second record.

Jessica and Hannah then make a new friend who is also a new student like them both named Alex Standall. Their friendship was initially pleasant. They often exchange stories and comfort each other's friends who are in trouble. But all of that didn't last long because then Alex moved away from the two of them and then Jessica, who also stayed away from Hannah. Apart from staying away from Hannah, Jessica also took actions that really hurt Hannah's feelings. That's what caused Jessica's name to appear in record number two.

3) Synopsis of episode 3 13 REASONS WHY

Alex Standall's name appears in record number 3 of the reason Hannah ended her life. Alex was one of Hannah's close friends at the beginning of the season with Jessica Davis. However, Alex was disloyal to his friend because he was away from the friendship of the three of them. In addition to making Hannah sad because she kept her love affair with Jessica a secret, Alex also hurt Hannah because she had included Hannah Baker's name in a list that categorizes students based on their physique, which sparked rumors and rampant bullying behavior towards Hannah. Alex's actions like that cause him to be included in the list of reasons why Hannah Baker took her own life.

4) Synopsis of episode 4 13 REASONS WHY

In the fourth episode, Tyler Down's name appears, a Liberty High School student who likes photography. Tyler's passion for photography, which sounded positive, was misused because he later turned into a stalker. Tyler's behavior that likes to stalk and take photos of other people secretly includes destroying the privacy rights of others, including Hannah Baker. Tyler, who often stalks Hannah, destroys Hannah's comfort in her activities.

It didn't stop there, Tyler's behavior then caused Hannah to become depressed because Tyler shared a photo of Hannah with Courtney.

Tyler's act of taking pictures of other students without permission made him often treated rudely by his friends. Tyler is often bullied, especially after the death of Hannah Baker. Clay, who learned of Tyler's actions through the recording of Hannah's will, became annoyed with Tyler and then retaliated against Tyler's treatment.

5) Synopsis of episode 5 13 REASONS WHY

During the Liberty High School dance, Courtney tries to protect herself by spreading rumors that Hannah is a gay person. He spread rumors that the photo was Hannah and Laura was not him. The gossip was spread by Courtney to fortify herself, who turned out to be a gay lover. While listening to a recording of Courtney's actions, Clay Jensen flashbacks his romantic moment with Hannah which was ruined because Hannah saw herself listening to the gossip about Hannah that had spread. Clay, who was annoyed, then did something about Courtney's actions.

6) Synopsis of episode 6 13 REASONS WHY

The case of Hannah's death due to suicide has become a crucial issue because Hannah's parents sued the school to court. Hannah's parents are still trying to find evidence that shows why Hannah decided to commit suicide, but it's hard to find. Because the only thing that can explain why Hannah ended her life are the tapes that are still in Clay Jensen's possession.

Now Clay has reached record number 6 which tells the heartbreaking story of Hannah on Valentine's Eve. In the recording, the name Marcus Cole, the student council president, appears because of what he did when he asked Hannah on a date at a cafe. Apart from doing something disrespectful to Hannah, Marcus' words to Hannah were no less painful.

7) Synopsis of episode 7 13 REASONS WHY

Zach Dempsey, a Liberty High School basketball athlete appears on record number 7. At first Zach is told as a friend who is kind to Hannah. Accompany Hannah when she is sad. But Zach didn't realize he was saying words that offended Hannah's sensitive feelings.

Zach stole the words of praise someone had given to Hannah. Zach didn't realize how much a piece of picture paper meant to Hannah. Zach didn't even show any remorse for his attitude. Clay again couldn't stop himself from doing something in order to show justice. But Clay's actions had almost crossed the line.

8) Synopsis of episode 8 13 REASONS WHY

In the eighth episode, Hannah recounts her experiences to determine what she will do after graduating from school. He did not have sufficient financial ability nor did he have good grades to get a scholarship. After talking to a librarian, Hannah realized that she loved writing even though she never showed it to anyone. Eventually Hannah decided to join the writing community and there she met Ryan Shaver.

Ryan Shaver was no stranger to Hannah because they were schoolmates. Ryan is a model student who runs a school magazine by himself. He is also very good at poetry. However, he is not good at keeping his friends' feelings in check by loading Hannah's handwriting without permission into a magazine that is distributed throughout the school. No regrets and apologies that came out of Ryan's mouth. All Hannah heard was the jeers from the other students about the content of the poem she wrote.

9) Synopsis of episode 9 13 REASONS WHY

The lawsuit filed by Hannah's parents against Liberty High School for the suicide of their only child made the school worried, including Hannah's friends whose names appear in the recording of the reason Hannah ended her life. Justin Folley, Zach Dempsey, Courtney, Jesica Davis, Marcus Cole and Alex Standall often seem to discuss how to silence Clay Jensen.

Hannah's parents are still trying to find the evidence Hannah left before she died. The bright spot that Hannah's parents found came from a poem written by Hannah that was published in the school magazine. Hannah's father also asked Mr. Porter who causes Ryan to be called into the counselor's room.

Clay wants to help Jessica Davis who doesn't know that she is a rape victim. In Hannah's record number 9 she tells a story of a crime experienced by Jesica which occurred when Jesica had a party at her house. Hannah told that she was hiding in Jesica's room that night when she saw a drunk Jessica being raped by one of her friends and this was allowed to happen by Jessica's boyfriend, Justin Folley.

All the children who listened to the tape said that Hannah was lying and saying it was simply because she was jealous that Jessica was dating her ex-boyfriend. But not with Clay, he believed and felt compelled to act to help Jessica Davis. However, Marcus Cole has a plan to silence Clay and restrain Clay's actions that might harm them all.

10) Synopsis of episode 10 13 REASONS WHY

There were three important things that happened to Hannah that night at a party at Jessica Davis' house. The second important incident is what happened to him with Sheri. Sheri's name appears on record number 10 which recounts what she did when Hannah was alive.

Hannah, who was no longer able to walk due to trauma from what she saw in Jessica's room, hoped that someone could take her home. It seems that his wish was heard by a kind-hearted friend, Sheri. Sheri offered to take Hannah home in the car she was driving. But in the middle of the road, Sheri, who was busy telling stories, didn't pay attention to the road, so she hit a warning pole.

Hannah advised Sheri to call 911 to report the collision with the pole because if the pole was not repaired immediately it could cause an accident, but Sheri, who was very panicked, left and ran away leaving Hannah alone. Hannah also tried to get a phone to call 911 because her cell phone at that time was running out of battery. But while Hannah was out looking for help, a car accident occurred which resulted in the death of a young man. The next day at school, Sheri actually told Hannah to be quiet and not to talk about what happened that night. Sheri hid her mistake which indirectly resulted in the life of one of their friends being lost. However, again and again no one believed the tape.

11) Synopsis of episode 11 13 REASONS WHY

Record number 11 is the recording that touches the hearts of the audience the most. In record number 11 Hannah tells of an awkward young man who has a special nature for him, namely Clay Jensen. Hannah admits that she actually admires Clay because Clay has always been himself and doesn't need what people say.

Hannah's story with Clay is one of three notable stories that take place on a party night at Jessica Davis' house. Hannah was so happy that she got to meet Clay there. They both talked and laughed together. Hannah saw that Clay was very good at breaking the ice and they both ended up getting lost in the romance.

When Hannah was with Clay she suddenly had a feeling that Clay was going to play her too like the boys did at school so she snapped and told Clay to leave. Clay couldn't hold Hannah back. He was confused as to why Hannah was acting like that when they were still fine. At the end of record number 11, Hannah says she doesn't deserve Clay. That was why Hannah had told Clay to leave. Shortly after Clay left, the next horrific scene was witnessed by Hannah.

12) Synopsis of episode 12 13 REASONS WHY

in episode 12, students who were known to have a close relationship with Hannah received a summons from the police station for questioning. The increasingly chaotic situation makes Zach and his friends again make plans so that they are not dragged into the Hannah suicide case.

In the 12th record, it tells of the times when Hannah's life really went awry. How he felt his parents disappointed in him because of his negligence. But what happened even more terrible was when Hannah arrived at Bryce's house and finally experienced the most horrific event that made her feel like she had no hope of living anymore. When Clay finds out the contents of record number 12, he visits Bryce and puts a plan into action.

13) Synopsis of episode 13 13 REASONS WHY

Hannah gave her life one last chance. himself felt he needed to ask for help and complain about the events that had happened to him while he was attending Liberty High School. Hannah ended up visiting the person she thought would help her and cracking down on similar cases of bullying that occurred at school, namely Mr. Porter is a counseling teacher.

When Hannah got to the counseling room she began to tell Mr. how she was feeling. Porter also included the unfair treatment he received from people at school. He admits he has no friends to support him. But apparently Hannah's efforts to get help from Mr. Porter didn't live up to his expectations. Mr. Porter actually advised him to forget what happened.

Finally Hannah finished her last recording and drove it to the post office where she ended her life in the bathtub.

Furthermore, during her time at Liberty High School, Hannah repeatedly received a series of intimidation from her friends in the form of humiliating herself, to harassing herself until it made Hannah depressed which led to her decision to commit suicide by slashing her own wrist. Clay is the only person in Hannah's footage that isn't considered one of the reasons why Hannah committed suicide because he sincerely likes and loves Hannah.

- c) Christian Navarro as Tony Padilla: is a character who has a mysterious nature. At the beginning of the story, Tony often follows Clay while listening to Hannah's recordings. Writers also suspected the existence of Tony in a story that looks full of mystery. But in the end, Tony told Clay that he was the first to receive the package containing the tapes from Hannah and took responsibility for distributing the tapes to the names Hannah had registered. Tony is also responsible for ensuring that the tapes must be forwarded to the people on the list and if the circulation of the tapes is interrupted then Tony must distribute the recordings to the public. For that Tony plays an important role in this story because he has to make sure that the tapes don't fall into the hands of parents, teachers, and the police.

- e) Brandon Flynn as Justin Folley: is the first person Hannah mentions on the tape and Hannah's first love at school. Justin Folley's name is the only one that appears twice on the record. His first appearance was because he allowed Bryce to spread a photo of Hannah playing on a slide in the park who accidentally showed Hannah's panties to all the children at Liberty High School, which then caused rumors to spread that Hannah was a "cheap" woman. Justin never even explained and also apologized to Hannah for his actions.e. Justin Prentice as Bryce Walker, A student from a wealthy family and the captain of the sports team at Liberty High.
- f) Justin Prentice as Bryce Walker: is a popular boy at school. Has talent in sports, and has a lot of wealth because of his parents' wealth. It turns out that this makes Hannah feel Zach is stealing her spirit.
- i) Devin Druid as Tyler Down: is a student who loves photography. Tyler's appearance can be said to be clumsy and doesn't have many friends. He was also often the object of bullying by his friends at school. But he didn't really care and focused on his passion for photography. As a result of being too fond of photography, Tyler often stalks his friends to get photos of his school friends' daily lives, including stalking Hannah. He often makes Hannah uncomfortable and plans to set a trap with Courtney, Hannah's girlfriend, who turns out to be a same-sex lover, to catch a stalker who turns out to be Tyler. However, while waiting to catch the stalker, Courtney kisses Hannah instead. When it happened Tyler was stalking the photo and finally the photo was distributed by Tyler to all students at school. of course this caused Hannah depression.

- j) Steven Silver as Marcus Cole: is the Student Council President at Liberty High School. Marcus Cole is also friends with popular students at his school such as Justin Folley, Bryce Walker, and Zach Dempsey. The reason for the appearance of Marcus Cole's name on the tape is because Marcus tried to harass Hannah when they were dating in a cafe on Valentine's Day. Even Marcus also said that he thought Hannah was a slut. After that Marcus didn't even say sorry, instead leaving Hannah crying alone.j. Michele Selene Ang as Courtney Crimson, one of the most popular students at school because she is also a member of the Student Council of Liberty High School. Judging from her appearance, Courtney is a sweet innocent girl. He was always nice in front of everyone. But Courtney keeps a secret that she is a same-sex lover.

k) Michele Selene Ang as Courtney Crimson: one of the most popular students at school because she is also a member of the Student Council of Liberty High School. Judging from her appearance, Courtney is a sweet innocent girl. He was always nice in front of everyone. But Courtney keeps a secret that she is a same-sex lover. After a photo of her kissing Hannah was shared by Tyler, Courtney distanced herself from Hannah and acted as if the reason for the spread of the photo was the result of Hannah's actions. Courtney also told Hannah to stay out of his sight. It didn't stop there, Courtney spread rumors that the person in the photo was actually Hannah and another female student with short hair. Courtney spread the rumor solely to protect herself so that her identity as a same-sex lover is not revealed. The gossip also made Hannah the talk of her friends.

l) Tommy Dorfman as Ryan Shaver: is an honor student and also runs the school magazine. Tomy Dorfman and Hannah are both members of a poetry group. The mistake that Ryan made to Hannah was when Hannah found out that Hannah's sensitive poetry was published by Ryan without Hannah's permission and was published in a school magazine run by Ryan. Although Ryan did not include the author's name, Jesica, who was once a close friend of Hannah's, told the other students that she believed it was Hannah's handwriting. When Hannah asked Ryan for an explanation, she was arrogant and didn't feel guilty and didn't say sorry to Hannah. The poem also became a topic of discussion at school which caused Hannah to stop continuing her poetry writing talent.

m) Derek Luke as Kevin Porter: is a counseling teacher at Liberty High School. Mr. Porter, as he is familiarly called by his students at school, is a teacher who doesn't pay much attention to his students. He was the last person Hannah visited before she decided to commit suicide with the intention of asking for help. But what Hannah got was the attitude of Mr. Porter who does not empathize with how Hannah feels and seems to blame Hannah for all the events that have happened to her. Instead of taking action on Hannah's outpouring of depression as a result of the series of bullying and harassment she experienced, Mr. Porter instead advised Hannah to stop thinking about these events.
