the database, which is based on the structure of the economic sector database, and the sector database. The economic sector database provides a comprehensive overview of the economic structure and performance of the country's economy, allowing for detailed analysis and forecasting of economic trends and potential growth areas. The database is regularly updated to reflect changes in the economy, ensuring that users have access to the most current information available.