1. Synopsis of Austen's Emma

Emma tells the story of Emma Woodhouse, a girl who has power and authority, and more than enough egotism for the forgivable follies of youth. She lives in Hartfield with her father and her governess, Miss Taylor who has taken the place of Emma's dead mother for eight years, has that day married cheerful Mr. Weston and has left Hartfield for Randalls, a house half a mile down the lane. After her governess left, Emma find someone else to be occupied named Harriet Smith. Harriet is a boarder at Mrs. Goddard's school. After the first meet, Emma and Harriet become more closer.

Mr. Knightley grooming Emma for the marriage ordeal and Emma instructing Harriet how to make a good match. At this moment Emma is more concerned with romance than condescension and she has made up her mind that Harriet must be the love child of somebody. Harriet surprises and angers Emma by disclosing that she is at the beginning of a love affair with Robert Martin. Emma forces Harriet to choose between Robert Martin and herself. Emma thought, the only person that could be able to help Harriet forgot Mr. Martin and provide a comfortable and a stable social life for Harriet was Mr. Elton. Mr. Elton pursues Emma, who believes he pursues her in order to be near Harriet. Emma reacts charmingly to the vicar for her friend's sake. Mr. Elton reacts charmingly to Harriet for Emma's sake.

Emma thought that the relationship between Harriet and Mr.Elton was going well. But it is not, all of the Emma's thought about Harriet and Mr.Elton's marriage was destroyed when Mr.Elton expressed his disinterest in Harriet, and Mr.Elton said that the person he liked was Emma. Emma was very surprised to heard Mr.Elton's confession, and Emma refused Mr.Elton's confession. After got rejected by Emma, Mr.Elton decided to left the village and went to Bath to spent a few weeks there.

After Mr.Elton's confession, Emma felt very guilty about Harriet. She told Harriet about Mr.Elton's confession to her. Harriet felt sad, and Emma tried her best to entertain and help Harriet to forgot Mr.Elton. When Mr.Elton returned to Highbury with his wife whom he married in Bath, Harriet had slowly forgot Mr.Elton. After through the various events, Harriet finally accepted and will got married with Mr.Martin. While, Emma and Mr.Knightley will got married too.

2. Biography of Jane Austen

Jane Austen was born on 16 December 1775 at Steventon near Basingstoke. She lived with her family at Steventon until they moved to Bath when her father retired in 1801. After his death in 1805, she moved around with her mother, in 1809 they settled in Chawton , near Alton, Hampshire. Here she remained, except for a few visit to London, until in May 1817 she moved to Winchester to be near her doctor. There she died on 18 July 1817.

Mostly of Jane Austen's novels were published anonymously and only four novels being published during her lifetime. There ara Sense and Sensibility (1811),

Pride and Prejudice (1813), Mansfield Park (1814), and Emma (1816). Two other novels, Northanger Abbey and Persuasion, were published posthumously in 1818 with a biographical notice by her brother, Henry Austen, the first formal announcement of her authorship. Persuasion was written in a race against failing health in 1815-1816. She also left two earlier compositions, a short epistolary novel, Lady Susan, and an unfinished novel, The Watsons. At the time of her death she was working on a new novel, Sandition, a fragmentary draft of which survives.
