Favourite Figure

My favourite superhero is Spider-Man. He is a fictional character from Marvel Universe and Spider-Man Series. There are three Spider-Mans in Spiderverse and I like them all, but my ultimate favourite is the one played by Tom Holland. His story is the most tragic to me and it succeed to reduce me to tears.

@tomholland2013

Peter Parker, the real identity of Spider-Man was born on August 10, 2001, in Forest Hills, Queens, New York. He is an orphan. He lives with his aunt, May. He has a girlfriend named Michelle Jones (MJ for short) and a best friend named Ned. After he got bitten by a radioactive spider, he got spider-like superpower. He can shoots spider web from his hand, crawls through the walls, and has high immunity. He is a student on the bright days, and a superhero at nights.

He is a relatable superhero. He is a teenager who makes a mistake, but he try his best to fix the problem. Even if he has to lose his family, the whole world forgot who he is, and become the loneliest person in the universe. He taught us, that with great power, comes great responsibility.

MY FAVOURITE CITY

my favorite city is London, why because London is so beautiful and has many advantages. London has such beautiful scenery. I wanted to go to London because I was inspired by an Indian artist. London is the capital city of England and Great Britain. London is also the most visited city. London, the capital city of England, is a country located on the European continent.

@nurulfikriyyah_taqwa

London is a leading global city that excels in the arts, business, education, entertainment, fashion, finance, health, media, professional services, research and development, tourism and tourism.

a little understanding of the city of London. London is made up of various peoples and cultures from time immemorial with more than 300 languages spoken by various ethnicities.

London has been major for two millennia founded by the Romans in the 1st century under the name Londinium. London is listed as the city with the busiest airport in the world based on international passenger traffic. London is also home to many museums, galleries, libraries, sporting events and other cultural institutions. I hope that in the future my family and I can vacation in London aamin...
